Peace Lutheran Church Membership Covenant

PRAISE

- + The Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel of Jesus Christ into a personal relationship of faith in the one true God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. For this I give thanks and praise! (Romans 1:16)
- + That relationship is nurtured in the community of believers through the means of grace: God's Word, Baptism, and Communion. Therefore, I desire to praise God regularly through the worship life of this congregation, and in my own devotional life as a Christian. (Acts 2:42)
- + I accept the teachings and doctrines of Peace Lutheran Church, as written in the Bible and explained in Luther's Small Catechism, as my understanding and faith. (Titus 1:9)
- + At the heart of this faith, I believe and trust in Jesus and His life, death and resurrection alone for my salvation. (Mark 16:16)

PREPARE

- + I acknowledge that I am still growing as a Christian, and I desire to prepare to live out my Christian life through the continued study of God's Word, the Bible, individually and with other believers, as I have opportunity. (2 Peter 3:18)
- + I desire to receive encouragement from other Christians and give encouragement to others as part of my responsibility within this family of believers. This happens through various Bible studies, support groups and ministry action teams within the church. (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

PRODUCE

- + I desire to actively live out my Christian faith daily producing the fruits of that faith, with the help of God: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23)
- + As a member of the body of Christ, I am an important part of His mission, to produce disciples of Jesus Christ, by sharing His love and Good News with everyone. (Matt. 28:19-20)
- + I recognize that my entire life has been redeemed by Christ and therefore I seek to honor God in all I say and do. I seek to avoid sinful behavior contrary to God's moral law as summarized in the Ten Commandments. (2 Peter 3:11)
- + I submit myself to the governing policies of this church and seek to have my fellow believers hold me accountable to my commitment to Christ and His Church. (Matt. 18:17)
